Cole Bros. Show.

Away from the old time methods of presenting tented amusement enterprises, is Cole Bros. World Touring Show and Trained Animal Exhibition, which will give two performances, afternoon and night, on Monday, August 28.

The Cole Bros. World Touring Show travels in its own two all-steel trains. As its title denotes, animal features predominate, but do not by any means form all of the programme; high class European novelties and horse, pony, dog and monkey acts are interwoven into the programme with such varied effects, that the onlooker is taken from one surprise to another with such wonderful rapidity that he hardly knows what to expect next, and it is in the arranging of the programme so as to take advantage of these surprises wherein lies the charm of Cole Bros. performance.

A noticeable feature of the show is its absolute freedom from anything suggestive that mars so many performances; its clean wholesome fun, the real comedy of the clowns, in burlesquing important topics of the day, and grotesque impersonations of people prominent in the limelight, is real humor and greatly appreciated. Twenty funny clowns under the leadership of Happy Billy Reid, the master clown of the day, feature many absurdly comic acts. "The Big Suffragettes Meeting," "A Baseball Number," "Comedy Policemen," "Flying Machine and Automobile Number," "Role and Old Lady Number," and dozens of other foolish and ludicrous comedy acts by clowns who are eminent in foolery.

The Berne Brothers, the strongest men in the world, direct from Europe and the first time seen in America, keep the audience spellbound with their many varied feats of strength and wrestling. Prof. John Dussander, the world's greatest horse trainer, with his troupe of five educated performing white Arabian horses Prof. F. J. Rogers with his troupe of educated dogs and Shetland ponies will be the delight of the children and interesting to the grownups; 25 of these ponies present drills and difficult military maneuvers with all precision and skill of trained soldiers. This is recognized as the best trained school of ponies seen with any tented organization. Chas. Post and his trained trick mules. Herr Diefenbach's trained bears are another European importation. Here Diefenbach comes highly recommended by the press of Europe and the performance of his huge Siberian grizzly bears range from comedy to sensationalism.

The above are only a few of the many acts interwoven in a program of undisputed excellence.

The one show that is absolutely different from all others and is without doubt the highest class, most progressive and most pleasing tented exhibition that will visit Columbus this season. Free street parade at 10 o'clock a. m. A tremendous exhibition of splendor, of scores of open dens, glittering tableaux, savage animals led in leash, four brass bands, forty clowns, scores of pretty women. The entire parade enriched by a beautiful display of flashy costumes and trappings, altogether representing an immense fortune.

THE COMPELLING PERORATION TO MR. HUGHES' ACCEPTANCE SPEECH.

We live in a fateful hour. In a true sense, the contest for the preservation of the Nation is never ended. We must still be imbued with the spirit of heroic sacrifice which gave us our country and brought us safely through the days of civil war. We renew our pledge to the ancient ideals of individual liberty, of opportunity denied to none because of race or creed, of unswerving loyalty. We have a vision of America prepared and secure; strong and just; equal to her task; an exemplar of the capacity and efficiency of a free people. I endorse the platform adopted by the Convention and accept its nomination.

Pointed Paragraphs From Speech of Acceptance of Charles E. Hughes

It is apparent that we are shockingly unprepared.

When we contemplate industrial and commercial conditions, we see that we are living in a false paradise.

Not only have we a host of resources short of war by which to enforce our just demands but we shall never promote our peace by being stronger in words than in deeds.

We are neither deceived nor denuded by abnormal conditions. We know that we are in a critical period, perhaps more critical than any period since the Civil War.

The Administration utterly failed to perform its obvious duty to secure protection for the lives and property of our citizens. It is most unworthy to stir those who have investments in Mexico in order to escape a condemnation for the non-performance of this duty.

It is only through international co-operation giving a reasonable assurance of peace that we may hope for the limitation of armaments.

We have determined to cut out root and branch, monopolistic practices, but we can do this without hobbling enterprise or narrowing the scope of legitimate achievement.

We demand a simple business-like budget.

I believe it is only through a responsible budget, proposed by the executive, that we shall avoid financial waste.

We have had brave words in a series of notes, but despite our protests the lives of Americans have been destroyed.

"You talk like your town was bound to cover the face of the earth."
"Well, isn't it?"
"Yah, you're only a freckle."
